

Comments made by participants at the Watch Conference

1. It was one of the greatest weekends of my life. The people who missed it really missed an opportunity.
2. It helped to lift my spirit and enthusiasm. It helped to reaffirm my commitments. It renewed the importance of keeping Watch alive and well.
3. I loved seeing so many other people from other parishes—the sharing of ideas. It meant getting to know them and more about Watch and Leadership. A fantastic weekend.
4. It was a time to be with like minded people from my parish so we could understand the improvements we can make. It was so meaningful to be with and see how the Lord is leading others.
5. It was a chance to get to know that all of us are in the “same boat” but you gave us many strategies for getting out of the boat.
6. It was a great renewal for me. An opportunity to fellowship with those who are on a similar spiritual walk. The weekend was total joy for me.
7. I became even closer to God and have lots to share with our Watch board. I will continue my faith journey even stronger because of this weekend.
8. It was an encouragement to trust God- to let go and roll up my sleeves knowing that God and the Watch community will be there for me.
9. I was affirmed that our Watch is moving and growing in the right way. I learned so much and have much to take back to our Watch.
10. There was such a strong sense of community, of family and that we were all going in the same direction supporting each other.
11. It got me spiritually re-energized, renewed my relationship with God and old friends and let me make new heart friends.
12. Our Agape meal was so very special. I had goose bumps. The Holy Spirit truly lifted us up. I will never forget that special evening that we spent together. My spirit is soaring and I feel energized.
13. It was a time to be reenergized spiritually and organizationally. All of the workshops really gave me a lot to take back.
14. It was an opportunity to learn and to love. There was a wonderful balance of Spirit and information.
15. It was more than I could have imagined. Family, love, caring, belonging. My faith and my enthusiasm were recharged and I realized gifts that I never knew I had.
16. This conference is a well where I can go and always receive fresh water, ideas, help, love and friends. It never dries up. Each weekend is inspirational and uplifting and fills me to overflowing.
